

Updated Advice Regarding Independent Expenditures for the 2010 Elections

The advice in this memo has been updated by the Commission staff to reflect the Decision and Order by the U.S. District Court in National Organization for Marriage v. McKee, No. 09-538, at 30-32 (D. Me. Aug. 19, 2010). In the decision, the court upheld the independent expenditure presumption that applies in the last 35 days before a general election. The court, however, determined that the provision in 21-A M.R.S.A. § 1019-B(2) permitting spenders to rebut the presumption was unconstitutionally vague and could not be enforced by the Commission.

Therefore, the Commission staff advises that all expenditures covered by the presumption must be reported as independent expenditures. The parties making the expenditures will not have an opportunity to rebut the presumption while the Decision and Order is in effect. This advice memo has been updated by the Commission staff to delete references to the rebuttal process.

This memo answers some frequently asked questions about whether independent expenditure reporting is required. A copy of the relevant law (21-A M.R.S.A. § 1019-B) is attached with the corresponding Commission rule regarding independent expenditures. For advice about how to file an independent expenditure report, please see the instructions on the reporting form.

What is an “independent expenditure?”

Independent expenditures are payments or obligations made by individuals and organizations, acting independently of candidate campaigns, for certain communications referring to clearly identified candidates.

More specifically, payments or obligations made for communications (for example, advertisements and literature) that expressly advocate the election or defeat of a candidate are always considered independent expenditures.

In addition, payments or obligations made for communications are presumed to be independent expenditures if the communication 1) is disseminated within 21 days before a primary election or within 35 days before the general election, 2) names or depicts a clearly identified candidate, and 3) involves a race in which a Maine Clean Election Act certified candidate is running.

These two periods before an election are referred to below as the “presumption periods.”

Presumption Periods for the 2010 Elections
Election	Length (includes election day)	Dates
Primary	21 days	May 19 – June 8
General	35 days	September 29 – November 2

Some communications are exempt from the presumption, such as slate cards sent by political party committees (please see exceptions below).

How do I know if my advertisement or literature “expressly advocates” the election or defeat of a candidate?

The term “expressly advocate” is defined in Chapter 1, Section 10(2)(B) of the Commission Rules, which is attached to this memo. The definition includes phrases such as “Jones for House of Representatives” or “Vote for the Governor,” and other words which in context can have no reasonable meaning other than to urge the election or defeat of one or more clearly identified candidates.

Since the Commission adopted the rule, the Commission has been asked whether certain communications constitute express advocacy. In order to provide better guidance to organizations making campaign-related expenditures, the Commission has attached to this memo three examples of campaign literature, which are discussed below.

In February 2010, the Commission gave further consideration to some of its prior determinations applying the express advocacy rule. As a result of this review, the Commission decided to clarify that, in a communication to voters, the identification of the office sought by a candidate named in the communication is a factor that the Commission generally will consider in favor of a determination that the meaning of the communication is to urge the election or defeat of a candidate. The determination of whether the communication constitutes express advocacy will be based on the entire content of the communication, and whether the communication has any reasonable meaning other than to urge the election or defeat of a candidate.

The Commission offers the following guidance on the attached three examples of campaign literature

- In the 2008 general election, the Maine Democratic Party mailed the attached literature concerning Peter Kent. Mr. Kent was a candidate for the Maine House of Representatives, but the literature did not mention his candidacy or the election.

This communication was determined not to contain express advocacy.

- In the 2006 general election, the Maine Democratic Party sent the attached literature in support of Anne Rand. In that election, Ms. Rand was a candidate for the Maine House of Representatives, but she was not an incumbent. Nevertheless, the front of the card included the phrase “Anne Rand/State Representative.”
- In the 2008 general election, the Maine Republican Party mailed literature concerning Jane Knapp. Ms. Knapp was a candidate for the House of Representatives, and was not an incumbent. The literature did not mention her candidacy explicitly, but it contained the phrase “Maine Families Deserve a Representative Who Will Fight for Them.”

With respect to the Anne Rand and Jane Knapp literature, the Commission advises that the identification of the office sought by a candidate named in a communication will favor a determination that the only reasonable meaning of the communication was to urge the election or defeat of a candidate.

If I make an independent expenditure, how does that affect a Maine Clean Election Act candidate?

Independent expenditures are included in the Commission's determination of whether a Maine Clean Election Act candidate is entitled to receive matching funds. For example, if Candidate A and Candidate B (a Maine Clean Election Act candidate) are opponents in the general election, and a political action committee (PAC) makes an independent expenditure in support of Candidate A, Candidate B may be entitled to receive matching funds. The independent expenditure has the same effect regardless how Candidate A is financing his or her campaign.

How do I report independent expenditures?

Please see the independent expenditure reporting form for instructions on how to file the report. Under the Commission's rules, entering into an obligation to make an independent expenditure may require the filing of a report regardless when the payment for the communication is made.

Does making an independent expenditure turn me or my organization into a political action committee?

The definition of "political action committee" was changed in 2008. If an organization spends more than $5,000 in a calendar year to influence candidate elections, it must register with the Commission as a political action committee, even if its major purpose is something other than the influencing of candidate elections. (21-A M.R.S.A. § 1052(5)(A)(5)) This new requirement does not apply to individuals.

If your organization's major purpose is to influence candidate or ballot question elections, please contact the Commission to find out what your registration and reporting requirements are.

I have heard that I should not coordinate my spending with the candidate I want to support. Why?

Independent expenditures must be independent of the candidate. Any expenditure made by a third-party in consultation or cooperation with a candidate is considered to be a contribution to the candidate and is not an independent expenditure. For example, if a supporter wants to place an ad supporting a candidate in the local newspaper and asks the candidate to supply him with a campaign photograph, that is enough to make the entire cost of the ad a contribution to the candidate. The cost would have to be reported by the candidate, and the supporter would not be required to file an independent expenditure report. Since MCEA candidates cannot accept contributions, this is not permitted for them. It would be permissible for privately financed candidates to accept the payment for an ad as an in-kind contribution, but the cost of the ad must be $350 or less because that is the contribution limit for legislative, county candidates and some municipal candidates. Gubernatorial candidates can accept contributions of $750 or less.

What paid communications are covered by the presumption?

The law was designed to apply to written and oral communications intended to influence the nomination, election, or defeat of a candidate. Under the Commission's rules, the following types of communications are covered by the presumption:

- Printed advertisements in newspapers and other media

- Television and radio advertisements
- Printed literature
- Recorded telephone messages
- Live scripted telephone calls or messages
- Electronic communications.

This list is not exhaustive and other types of communications may also be covered. In general, any expenditure that has all of the following four elements is covered by the presumption:

- an expenditure made to design, produce, or disseminate a communication
- that is disseminated in the last 21 days before a primary election or in the last 35 days before a general election, and
- that names or depicts a clearly identified candidate
- who is in a race involving a Maine Clean Election Act candidate.

If the expenditure is covered by the presumption and is greater than $100 per candidate, the person making the expenditure must either file an independent expenditure report or a signed statement that the expenditure was not made with the intent to influence the election (see below).

What determines if a communication is made within the presumption periods that begin on May 19 and September 29?

The presumption period applies to when the communication is disseminated to voters. The date of the dissemination is the date of the postmark, broadcast, or hand-delivery of the communication.

If expenditures are made before the presumption period to design or produce a communication that is then disseminated during the presumption period, the expenditure may nevertheless be covered by the presumption, and the costs of designing, producing, and disseminating the communication must be reported in an independent expenditure report.

May I rebut the presumption that the communication is a campaign-related independent expenditure?

Because of the Decision and Order by the U.S. District Court in National Organization for Marriage v. McKee, No. 09-538, at 30-32 (D. Me. Aug. 19, 2010), parties making an expenditure covered by the presumption will not have an opportunity to rebut the presumption.

The court determined that the provision in 21-A M.R.S.A. § 1019-B(2) permitting spenders to rebut the presumption was unconstitutionally vague and could not be enforced by the Commission. Therefore, the Commission staff advises that all expenditures covered by the presumption must be reported as independent expenditures.

What if the cost of a communication is less than $100 per candidate?

The definition of independent expenditure applies only to expenditures for communications. If the person making the communication did not spend or obligate more than $100 per candidate to design, produce, or disseminate the communication, no independent expenditure report is necessary. However, once the aggregated costs for any candidate exceed $100, a report must be filed for communications regarding that candidate.

Example: a community organization maintains a list of e-mail addresses of individuals who are concerned about local economic development issues. At no cost, it sends an e-mail to the concerned citizens endorsing a legislative candidate. The organization would not be required to file an independent expenditure report because the communication involved no expense.

Please note that if an organization uses materials produced by another entity (e.g., a legislative scorecard), the cost of producing that material must be included in the total amount for that communication (see below).

Are there any expenditures that are exempt from the reporting requirement and the presumption?

Certain election-related activities are excluded from the legal definition of “expenditure” in the Election Law. Because these activities are not considered expenditures, they do not need to be reported as independent expenditures and the presumption does not apply to them. These excluded costs include:

- News stories and editorials distributed through a broadcasting station, newspaper, or other periodical;
- Any communication from a membership organization (e.g., a union or trade association) or corporation to its members or stockholders if that organization is not organized primarily for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of any person for state or county office;
- Activity or communication designed to encourage individuals to register to vote or to vote if that activity or communication does not mention a clearly identified candidate;
- The use of offices, telephones, computers, or similar equipment when that use does not result in additional cost to the provider; and
- The payment by a party committee for a slate card or party candidate listing (see definition below).

For a full list of exceptions to the legal definition of “expenditure,” see 21-A M.R.S.A. § 1012(3)(B).

Isn't there an exception for communications naming three or more candidates?

There is an exception for communications involving three or more candidates, but it applies only to state and local party committees and only to communications that meet the following requirements:

- The communication lists the names of at least 3 candidates for election to public office (this can be a combination of federal, state, and local candidates).
- The communication is distributed through public advertising such as broadcast stations, cable television, newspapers and similar media, and through direct mail, telephone, electronic mail, publicly accessible sites on the Internet or personal delivery.
- The treatment of all candidates in the communication is substantially similar (although if required by federal law, a federal candidate may be treated differently).

- The content of the communication is limited to:
 - (1) The identification of each candidate, with which pictures may be used;
 - (2) The offices sought;
 - (3) The offices currently held by the candidates;
 - (4) The party affiliation of the candidates and a brief statement, including campaign slogans, about the party's or the candidates' positions, philosophy, goals, accomplishments, or biographies;
 - (5) Encouragement to vote for the candidates identified;
 - (6) Information about voting, such as voting hours and locations; and
 - (7) Campaign or party logos.

If the communication contains language outside the categories of this paragraph, it does not qualify as a slate card.

Are telephone communications covered by the presumption?

In the view of the Commission, the presumption in Section 1019-B would cover automated telephone messages and live calls from individuals that are scripted, if the communications have the four elements described above on page 4.

Are there any individuals or organizations that are exempt from the presumption?

Section 1019-B does not exempt any category of individuals or organizations from the presumption. Nevertheless, as noted above, some expenditures by membership or news organizations and party committees are excluded from the legal definition of expenditure, and therefore are not covered by the independent expenditure law.

Does my membership organization have to report its communications to its members?

The Election Law contains an exemption for membership organizations that are not organized primarily for the purpose of influencing an election. Communications from those organizations to their members are not considered expenditures, and therefore are not considered independent expenditures. However, if the communication expressly advocates for the election or defeat of a candidate and the cost of the communication is more than $50 in any one candidate's election, the expenditures must be disclosed in a special report required by 21-A M.R.S.A. § 1019-A. Those expenditures, however, will not trigger matching funds under the Maine Clean Election Act.

What if the costs of producing the communication are paid for by an organization that is different than the organization that disseminates the communication? Which organization must file an independent expenditure report?

Some of the questions posed to the Commission suggest that organizations may purchase or produce copies of a written communication (such as a legislative scorecard or voting record) and provide them to another organization that will distribute them. Persons paying for or disseminating communications covered by the presumption will be expected to demonstrate a high degree of good faith to ensure that all design, production, and distribution costs are reported to the Commission so that the correct amount of matching funds will be received by MCEA candidates.

When calculating whether it has spent more than $100 per candidate, an organization that has been supplied printed communications covered by the presumption and that distributes them must report both its own distribution costs and the value of the materials it has distributed. The Commission requests that the organization make a good faith effort to determine the value of the materials by ascertaining the actual design and production costs of the materials distributed. If the actual costs cannot be determined with a reasonable effort, the organization should estimate the fair market value of the materials it has distributed. Both the distribution costs and the value of the materials must be included in the independent expenditure report.

Example: A PAC receives 500 copies of literature referring to a candidate that it distributes one week before the general election in order to influence the outcome of the election. By checking with the person or organization that supplied the literature, the PAC determines that the actual cost of the literature was $400. The PAC spends $200 distributing the literature. The PAC should file an independent expenditure report with a total expenditure of $600.*

What about legislative scorecards or voting records of legislators?

Some organizations produce literature that summarizes legislators' voting records on particular issues and rates the legislators on their voting records. If these communications have the four elements of the presumption described above on page 4, the person paying for or disseminating the literature will be required to file an independent expenditure report if more than $100 is spent in any candidate's race. For communications that refer to multiple candidates, the Commission's rule (attached) explains how to allocate the cost among the candidates.

Are communications designed to encourage individuals to register to vote or to vote covered by the presumption?

The Election Law excludes from the legal definition of expenditure "activity or communication designed to encourage individuals to register to vote or to vote if that activity or communication does not mention a clearly identified candidate." (21-A M.R.S.A. § 1012(2)(B)(10)) Those communications are not covered by the presumption. If communications designed to encourage individuals to register to vote or to vote name or depict a clearly identified candidate and meet the other requirements of the presumption (including the $100 per candidate threshold), the person making the expenditure must file an independent expenditure report.

Are polling, voter surveys, and public opinion research covered by the presumption?

Some live scripted conversations made by telephone callers within the presumption periods could be covered by the presumption. If a survey relates to a public issue and does not mention a candidate's name, it is not subject to the presumption and no report must be filed. If a public opinion survey within the presumption periods contains references to a candidate and meets the other requirements of the presumption (including the $100 per candidate threshold), the person making the expenditure must file an independent expenditure report. If public opinion research (e.g., voter identification information) is contributed to a PAC to influence an election, the PAC must report the research as an in-kind contribution including the fair market value of the research.

Are Section 527 organizations covered by the law?

National organizations are subject to the Maine Election Law if they raise or spend money regarding state candidates in Maine. This includes so-called Section 527 organizations that are organized outside the State of Maine. If a Section 527 organization makes an expenditure that is covered by the rebuttable presumption, it is required to file an independent expenditure report or a rebuttal statement.

What is the consequence of filing an independent expenditure report late?

The late filing of an independent expenditure report can result in the assessment of a civil penalty up to $5,000 under 21-A M.R.S.A. § 1020-A(4).

21-A M.R.S.A. § 1019-B. REPORTS OF INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURES

1. Independent expenditures; definition. For the purposes of this section, an "independent expenditure":

A. Is any expenditure made by a person, party committee, political committee or political action committee, other than by contribution to a candidate or a candidate's authorized political committee, for any communication that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate; and

B. Is presumed in races involving a candidate who is certified as a Maine Clean Election Act candidate under section 1125, subsection 5 to be any expenditure made to design, produce or disseminate a communication that names or depicts a clearly identified candidate and is disseminated during the 21 days, including election day, before a primary election; the 35 days, including election day, before a general election; or during a special election until and on election day.

2. Rebutting presumption. A person presumed under this section to have made an independent expenditure may rebut the presumption by filing a signed written statement with the Commission within 48 hours of making the expenditure stating that the cost was not incurred with the intent to influence the nomination, election or defeat of a candidate, supported by any additional evidence the person chooses to submit. The Commission may gather any additional evidence it deems relevant and material and must determine by a preponderance of the evidence whether the cost was incurred with intent to influence the nomination, election or defeat of a candidate.

3. Report required; content; rules. A person, party committee, political committee or political action committee that makes independent expenditures aggregating in excess of $100 during any one candidate's election shall file a report with the Commission. In the case of a municipal election, a copy of the same information must be filed with the municipal clerk.

A. A report required by this subsection must be filed with the Commission according to a reporting schedule that the Commission shall establish by rule that takes into consideration existing campaign finance reporting requirements and matching fund provisions under Chapter 14. Rules adopted pursuant to this paragraph are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, Chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.

B. A report required by this subsection must contain an itemized account of each contribution or expenditure aggregating in excess of $100 in any one candidate's election, the date and purpose of each contribution or expenditure and the name of each payee or creditor. The report must state whether the contribution or expenditure is in support of or in opposition to the candidate and must include, under penalty of perjury, as provided in Title 17-A, section 451, a statement under oath or affirmation whether the contribution or expenditure is made in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, the candidate or an authorized committee or agent of the candidate.

C. A report required by this subsection must be on a form prescribed and prepared by the Commission. A person filing this report may use additional pages if necessary, but the pages must be the same size as the pages of the form.

COMMISSION RULES, CHAPTER 1, SECTION 10 REPORTS OF INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURES

1. General. Any person, party committee, political committee or political action committee that makes an independent expenditure aggregating in excess of $100 per candidate in an election must file a report with the Commission according to this section.
2. Definitions. For purposes of this section, the following phrases are defined as follows:
 - A. "Clearly identified," with respect to a candidate, has the same meaning as in Title 21-A, chapter 13, subchapter II.
 - B. "Expressly advocate" means any communication that uses phrases such as "vote for the Governor," "reelect your Representative," "support the Democratic nominee," "cast your ballot for the Republican challenger for Senate District 1," "Jones for House of Representatives," "Jean Smith in 2002," "vote Pro-Life" or "vote Pro-Choice" accompanied by a listing of clearly identified candidates described as Pro-Life or Pro-Choice, "vote against Old Woody," "defeat" accompanied by a picture of one or more candidate(s), "reject the incumbent," or communications of campaign slogan(s) or individual word(s), which in context can have no other reasonable meaning than to urge the election or defeat of one or more clearly identified candidate(s), such as posters, bumper stickers, advertisements, etc. which say "Pick Berry," "Harris in 2000," "Murphy/Stevens" or "Canavan!".
 - C. "Independent expenditure" has the same meaning as in Title 21-A §1019-B. Any expenditure made by any person in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate, a candidate's political committee or their agents is considered to be a contribution to that candidate and is not an independent expenditure.
3. Reporting Schedules. Independent expenditures must be reported to the Commission in accordance with the following provisions:
 - A. Independent expenditures aggregating in excess of $100 per candidate per election made by any person, party committee, political committee or political action committee must be reported to the Commission in accordance with the following reporting schedule, unless required to be reported according to the schedule in paragraph B.
 - (1) Quarterly Reports. Quarterly reports must be filed by 5:00 p.m. on:
 - (a) January 15th and be complete as of January 5th;
 - (b) April 10th and be complete as of March 31st;
 - (c) July 15th and be complete as of July 5th; and

(d) October 10th and be complete as of September 30th.

- (2) Pre-Election Report. A report must be filed by 5:00 p.m. on the 14th day before the election is held and be complete as of that day.

If the total of independent expenditures made to support or oppose a candidate exceeds $100, each subsequent amount spent to support or oppose the candidate must be reported as an independent expenditure according to the schedule in this paragraph or paragraph B.

- B. Independent expenditures aggregating in excess of $250 per candidate made on or before September 6th must be reported by 5:00 p.m. on September 7th.

Independent expenditures aggregating in excess of $250 per candidate made within the period starting on September 7th and ending on the 14th day before the general election must be reported within 48 hours of those expenditures, including on a weekend, holiday, or state government shutdown day.

[NOTE: THIS MEANS THAT WHEN THE CUMULATIVE AMOUNT OF EXPENDITURES TO SUPPORT OR OPPOSE A CANDIDATE EXCEEDS $250, AN INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURE MUST BE FILED WITH THE COMMISSION WITHIN 48 HOURS OF GOING OVER THE $250 THRESHOLD.

FOR EXAMPLE, IF AN INDIVIDUAL, ORGANIZATION OR COMMITTEE MAKES THREE EXPENDITURES OF $100 IN SUPPORT OF A CANDIDATE ON SEPTEMBER 10TH, SEPTEMBER 15TH, AND OCTOBER 1ST, AN INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURE REPORT MUST BE FILED BY OCTOBER 3RD. THE THIRD EXPENDITURE OF $100 MADE THE CUMULATIVE TOTAL OF EXPENDITURES EXCEED $250 AND THE 48-HOUR REPORTING REQUIREMENT WAS TRIGGERED ON OCTOBER 1ST. THE REPORT MUST INCLUDE ALL THREE EXPENDITURES.

AFTER OCTOBER 1ST, IF THAT INDIVIDUAL, ORGANIZATION OR COMMITTEE MAKES ADDITIONAL EXPENDITURES TO SUPPORT THAT CANDIDATE, THE REQUIREMENT TO FILE AN INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURE REPORT WITHIN 48 HOURS WILL APPLY ONLY IF THE CUMULATIVE TOTAL SPENT AFTER OCTOBER 1ST EXCEEDS $250. FOR EXAMPLE, IF THE INDIVIDUAL, ORGANIZATION OR COMMITTEE MAKES TWO PAYMENTS OF $200 TO PROMOTE THE CANDIDATE ON OCTOBER 10TH AND OCTOBER 15TH, ANOTHER INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURE REPORT MUST BE FILED BY OCTOBER 17TH DISCLOSING THOSE TWO EXPENDITURES.]

Independent expenditures aggregating in excess of $100 per candidate made after the 14th day before the general election must be reported within 24 hours of those expenditures, including on a weekend, holiday, or state government shutdown day.

- C. Reports must contain information as required by Title 21-A, chapter 13, subchapter II (§§ 1016-1017-A), and must clearly identify the candidate and indicate whether the expenditure was made in support of or in opposition to the candidate. Reports filed after the eighth day before an election must include the following information:
1. the date on which the person making the expenditure placed the order with the vendor for the goods or services;
 2. the approximate date when the vendor began providing design or any other services in connection with the expenditure;
 3. the date on which the person making the expenditure first learned of the total amount of the expenditure; and
 4. a statement why the expenditure could not be reported by the eighth day before the election.
- D. A separate 24-Hour Report is not required for expenditures reported in an independent expenditure report.

4. Multi-Candidate Expenditures. When a person or organization is required to report an independent expenditure for a communication that supports multiple candidates, the cost should be allocated among the candidates in rough proportion to the benefit received by each candidate.

- A. The allocation should be in rough proportion to the number of voters who will receive the communication and who are in electoral districts of candidates named or depicted in the communication. If the approximate number of voters in each district who will receive the communication cannot be determined, the cost may be divided evenly among the districts in which voters are likely to receive the communication.

[NOTE: FOR EXAMPLE, IF CAMPAIGN LITERATURE NAMING SENATE CANDIDATE X AND HOUSE CANDIDATES Y AND Z ARE MAILED TO 10,000 VOTERS IN X'S DISTRICT AND 4,000 OF THOSE VOTERS RESIDE IN Y'S DISTRICT AND 6,000 OF THOSE VOTERS LIVE IN Z'S DISTRICT, THE ALLOCATION OF THE EXPENDITURE SHOULD BE REPORTED AS: 50% FOR X, 20% FOR Y, and 30% FOR Z.]

- B. If multiple county or legislative candidates are named or depicted in a communication, but voters in some of the candidates' electoral districts will not receive the communication, those candidates should not be included in the allocation.

[NOTE: FOR EXAMPLE, IF AN EXPENDITURE ON A LEGISLATIVE SCORECARD THAT NAMES 150 LEGISLATORS IS DISTRIBUTED TO

VOTERS WITHIN A TOWN IN WHICH ONLY ONE LEGISLATOR IS SEEKING RE-ELECTION, 100% OF THE COST SHOULD BE ALLOCATED TO THAT LEGISLATOR'S RACE.]

- C. If a candidate who has received matching funds because of a multi-candidate communication believes that he or she deserves additional matching funds because the communication disproportionately concerns his or her race, the Commission may grant additional matching funds in proportion to the relative treatment of the candidates in the communication.

- 5. Rebuttable Presumption. Under Title 21-A M.R.S.A. §1019-B(1)(B), an expenditure made to design, produce or disseminate a communication that names or depicts a clearly identified candidate in a race involving a Maine Clean Election Act candidate and that is disseminated during the 21 days before a primary election and 35 days before a general election will be presumed to be an independent expenditure, unless the person making the expenditure submits a written statement to the Commission within 48 hours of the expenditure stating that the cost was not incurred with the intent to influence the nomination, election or defeat of a candidate.

- A. The following types of communications may be covered by the presumption if the specific communication satisfies the requirements of Title 21-A M.R.S.A. §1019-B(1)(B):

- (1) Printed advertisements in newspapers and other media;
- (2) Television and radio advertisements;
- (3) Printed literature;
- (4) Recorded telephone messages;
- (5) Scripted telephone messages by live callers; and
- (6) Electronic communications.

This list is not exhaustive, and other types of communications may be covered by the presumption.

- B. The following types of communications and activities are not covered by the presumption, and will not be presumed to be independent expenditures under Title 21-A M.R.S.A. §1019-B(1)(B):

- (1) news stories and editorials, unless the facilities distributing the communication are owned or controlled by the candidate, the candidate's immediate family, or a political committee;
- (2) activity or communication designed to encourage individuals to register to vote or to vote if that activity or communication does not name or depict a clearly identified candidate;

- (3) any communication from a membership organization to its members or from a corporation to its stockholders if the organization or corporation is not organized primarily for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of any person for state or county office;
 - (4) the use of offices, telephones, computers, or similar equipment when that use does not result in additional cost to the provider; and
 - (5) other communications and activities that are excluded from the legal definition of "expenditure" in the Election Law.
- C. If an expenditure is covered by the presumption and is greater, in the aggregate, than $100 per candidate per election, the person making the expenditure must file an independent expenditure report or a signed written statement that the expenditure was not made with the intent to influence the nomination, election or defeat of a candidate. The filing of independent expenditure reports should be made in accordance with the filing schedule in subsections 3(A) and 3(B) of this rule. Independent expenditures aggregating $100 or less per candidate per election do not require the filing of an independent expenditure report or a rebuttal statement.
- D. If a committee or association distributes copies of printed literature to its affiliates or members, and the affiliates or members distribute the literature directly to voters, the applicable 21-day or 35-day period applies to the date on which the communication is disseminated directly to voters, rather than the date on which the committee or association distributes the literature to its affiliates or members.
- E. For the purposes of determining whether a communication is covered by the presumption, the date of dissemination is the date of the postmark, hand-delivery, or broadcast of the communication.
- F. An organization that has been supplied printed communications covered by the presumption and that distributes them to voters must report both its own distribution costs and the value of the materials it has distributed, unless the organization supplying the communications has already reported the costs of the materials to the Commission. If the actual costs of the communications cannot be determined, the organization distributing the communication to voters must report the estimated fair market value.
- G. If a person wishes to distribute a specific communication that appears to be covered by the presumption and the person believes that the communication is not intended to influence the nomination, election or defeat of a candidate, the person may submit the rebuttal statement to the Commission in advance of disseminating the communication for an early determination. The request must include the complete communication and be specific as to when and to whom the communication will be disseminated.

JANE KNAPP

FIGHTING FOR YOUR FAMILY

Growing Our Economy.

Maine families are worried about the state of our economy. Jane Knapp understands the economic anxiety, and will work to stimulate the economy, create jobs, and expand opportunity.

Keeping Taxes Low.

Maine families already pay too much in taxes. Jane Knapp will fight to lower taxes for working families so they can keep more of what they make. Maine families can make better decisions about how to spend their money than government bureaucrats.

Lowering Energy Costs.

Jane Knapp knows Maine families are struggling to pay for the high cost of gas and heating oil. That is why she will fight for an energy plan that will lower costs and allow our natural resources to power Maine's future.

A Growing Economy. Lower Taxes.
Energy Independence.
